Cumberland Area Lodge #59 Announces 3rd Annual FOP Ball 'Respect' theme to bring officers, families, friends and community together.

Fayetteville NC - The Executive Board of The Greater Cumberland Area Lodge #59 of the Fraternal Order of Police announces the 3rd Annual FOP Ball.

The Ball will be held November 8th at the Metropolitan Room, located at 109 Green Street in historic downtown Fayetteville. A social mixer starts at 6:30p, dinner will be served promptly at 7:30p. The evening's featured speaker will be Rick Glazier District 45 State Representative.

The goal of the ball is to bring members of the law enforcement community, their families, friends and community supporters together for an evening of fellowship and camaraderie.

Each year the ball has a theme that the staff of Lodge #59 wants to convey. The first year was 'Celebration', the second year was 'Duty' and this year the theme will be 'Respect'. "This year's goal is to have any Cumberland Area law enforcement officer, from 'rookie in school' to the Sheriff, come to the ball with their guest, have a good time and experience the 'Respect' they have earned," said Charles Kimble, President of Lodge #59.

If you haven't been to the Metropolitan Room in downtown Fayetteville, you are missing a treat. The room has an eccentric mix of modernism and art deco with the charm of a 1940's ball room; it is truly a gem in this city. The Ball organizer, Gayle Nelson and her staff have done a magnificent job preparing the event for the attendees.

To make your reservations e-mail Gayle Nelson at myevents01@aol.com and mail $25.00/person to FOP Ball, PO Box 987, Fayetteville NC 28302.
