President of the United States

John McCain

Governor

Beverly Perdue

Associate Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court

Robert (Bob) Edmunds

North Carolina Court of Appeals

John C. Martin

Cheri Beasley

Linda Stephens

Sam J. Ervin IV

James A. (Jim) Wynn

For a North Carolina candidate to receive the endorsement of the Fraternal Order of Police, he or she must receive a majority vote of the delegates attending the State Conference. Unlike many law enforcement organizations in this state, the North Carolina Fraternal Order of Police's endorsements are the decision of its membership and not just a small handful of members.

Both Gubernatorial candidates, along with the other candidates for state-wide offices, received the NC FOP questionnaire which was designed to examine the candidates' position on issues of importance to the membership. The returned questionnaires were sent to all 55 of the Local FOP Lodges across the State prior to the State Conference. Then, candidates were provided the opportunity to address the membership during the State Conference and to respond to questions from the floor.

The North Carolina Fraternal Order of Police represents more than 6,300 active and retired law enforcement officers across the state.
